About Us

BAMS Commercial Fitouts is an award-winning Australian-owned building and construction company. With extensive industry experience, BAMS has a suitable solution for every building and construction requirement. BAMS works across multiple sectors including corporate offices, retail, hospitality and tourism. BAMS is one of the few fitout specialists licensed to operate in every state of Australia, as well as throughout New Zealand.

BAMS specialises in providing clients with an integrated 'one stop shop' solution. We manage the entire fitout process, from concept to completion, simplifying all of your building and fitout needs. With in-house design and manufacturing capabilities, BAMS clients avoid the frustrating and time-consuming process of coordinating a range of suppliers and manufacturers. Using state-of-the-art technology, BAMS can produce high quality custom-built joinery, cost-effective fitouts and complete construction solutions. This means that throughout the entire project you only have to deal with one company, allowing you more time to focus on your business.

Manufacturing

All manufacturing and production occurs at our Sydney-based manufacturing facility. Using state-of-the-art machinery, BAMS can not only produce customised joinery equipment and furniture, but can also manufacture and replicate in large quantities. This means that we are able to quickly respond to our clients' needs, no matter how big or small.

Fitouts & Refurbishments

BAMS has extensive experience in completing fitouts and refurbishments across a range of industries including corporate, retail and hospitality. A high quality fitout can transform your business, appealing to new and existing customers, and ultimately driving new business.

We work closely with you to design and develop the most practical and appealing fitout for you and your target market. Our aim is to work collaboratively and strategically with clients to ensure that every project we undertake achieves the optimum outcome.

BAMS can also devise customised refurbishment solutions to meet any requirement. Whether an asset needs a component restoration or complete modernisation, a high quality refurbishment can transform a building, improving the overall look, and ultimately increasing the return on investment.

Programmed Maintenance

BAMS offers programmed maintenance services to all national corporate clients. Our dedicated team provide 24 hour maintenance support to ensure a quick turnaround on all maintenance projects.

Associations and Memberships

The Master Builders Association encourages and promotes a high standard of workmanship and integrity in the building industry.

Master Builders members are fair, reasonable and honest in their dealings with the community.

Members of the Australian Shop and Office Fitting Industry Association (ASOFIA) design and build retail and corporate interiors across Australia and New Zealand.

Members of ASOFIA are industry professionals who implement entire interior fit outs, spanning a range of different sizes and purposes.

HIA is a national industry association for all building professionals, representing the interests of the whole housing industry – from trade contractors, builders and suppliers to product manufacturers.

HIA members adhere to the highest levels of professionalism on building sites across Australia.
